1. Aims

St Mark's 's Policy for Inclusion and Special Educational Needs aim to:

- Ensure our school fully implements national legislation and Kent Local Authority's guidance and expectations.

Sets out how our school will:

- Support pupils with SEND ensuring our best endeavours to provide the appropriate provision to enable positive outcomes.
- Provide an inclusive environment that enables pupils to access all aspects of school life alongside their peers.
- Provide pupils with the skills and attributes that enable them to become confident individuals who can successfully live fulfilling lives.
- Support pupils with SEND to realise their aspirations and achieve their best.

- Communicate with pupils with SEND and their parents or carers ensuring co-production and seek pupil and parent or carer voices to fully involve them in decision making and discussions to support their child's provision.
- Communicate and explain the roles and responsibilities of key school and external professionals who are supporting the provision for pupils with SEND.
- Ensure the SEND Policy is understood and implemented consistently by all staff and is monitored by Governors.

At St Mark's all pupils irrespective of need access a broad and balanced curriculum which is delivered through high quality inclusive teaching to enable every pupil to make progress and reach their full potential socially, emotionally and academically. When required to do so, the school/academy will make reasonable adjustments to support pupils with SEND. The school/academy set high expectations and aspirations for each individual pupil, working together with them, and their parents/carers to ensure that pupils with SEND become confident and independent children and young people who are able to successfully transition to the next phase of their education or adult life.

Countywide Approach to Inclusive Education (CATIE)

A Countywide Approach to Inclusive Education \(kelsi.org.uk\)

What does inclusion mean in Kent?

'As the champion of families, children, and young people our collective priorities are to be certain that all children and young people are engaged with and included in the provision of high-quality inclusive education. Ensuring that, whatever their circumstance or ability, our children have a sense of belonging, feel respected, are valued for who they are and develop the knowledge and skills required for adult life. In doing so, we strive to achieve a continuous improvement in standards, a significant narrowing of achievement gaps for vulnerable groups of learners and a wholly inclusive education system which ensures:

- Equitable access for all. Sufficient, appropriate, quality education provision is available for all children and young people in Kent.
- No child is left behind. All children and young people are supported to be engaged fully in their education.
- Effective collaboration. There is collaboration and multi-agency working providing a self-informing, sustainable system which supports the education of all.' (KCC: CATIE p 2-3)

Special Educational Needs Mainstream Core Standards (ordinarily available provision) : Special Educational Needs Mainstream Core Standards

The Mainstream Core Standards:

- Sets out the provision that the Local Area has agreed should be ordinarily available for Children and Young People with SEND
- Provides guidance and advice to support schools to meet the needs of and include Children Young People with SEND

- Provides clear guidance to schools on the statutory duties regarding the inclusion of Children and Young People with SEND
- Provides information to all stakeholders on the work of schools in relation to the inclusion of Children and Young People with SEND.

The school/academy are all working towards the ultimate goal of growing independent young people as they prepare for adulthood. All provision and support at St Mark's works towards achieving the Kent Children and Young People Outcomes Framework

Our SEND policy should be read in conjunction with our school's /Academy's policies published on our website:

- Behaviour Policy
- Equality Policy
- Accessibility Plan

3. Definitions

Definition of SEN

'A child or young person has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.

A child of compulsory school age or a young person has a learning difficulty if he or she:

- Has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or

- Has a disability which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools to mainstream post-16 institutions'

(DFE/DOH 2015: 15-16)

Definition of Disability:

'Many children and young people who have SEN may have a disability under the Equality Act 2010- that is '..a physical or mental impairment which is a long-term and substantial adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.' This definition provides a low threshold and includes more children than many realise: 'Long term' is defined as a 'year or more' and 'substantial' is defined as 'more than minor or trivial'. This definition includes sensory impairments such as those affecting sight or hearing and long-term health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, and cancer. Children and young people with such conditions do not necessarily have SEN, but there is sufficient overlap between disabled children and young people and those with SEN. Where a disabled child or young person requires a special educational provision, they will also be covered by the SEN definition' (DfE/DOH 2015: 16)

Special Educational Needs Register:

At St Mark's the SENCO will regularly review the SEN register as part of the Graduated Approach. The SENCO will work in co-production with parents/carers and if required key external professionals to ensure high quality SEN provision is in place, informing parents/carers of any changes that have been agreed. School staff will also be informed, and records updated accordingly on the appropriate school system. A diagnosis does not necessarily mean that a pupil will be placed on the SEN register if the universal and targeted provision the pupil is accessing is enabling them to make good progress.

Special Educational Needs (SEN) support

'SEN support means support that is additional to, or different from, the support generally made for other children of the same age in a school. It is provided for pupils who are identified as having a learning difficulty or a disability that requires extra or different help to that normally provided as part of the school's usual curriculum offer. A pupil on SEN support will not have an education, health and care plan.'

<https://explore-education-statistics.service.gov.uk/find-statistics/special-educational-needs-in-england>

Education, health and care (EHC) plans

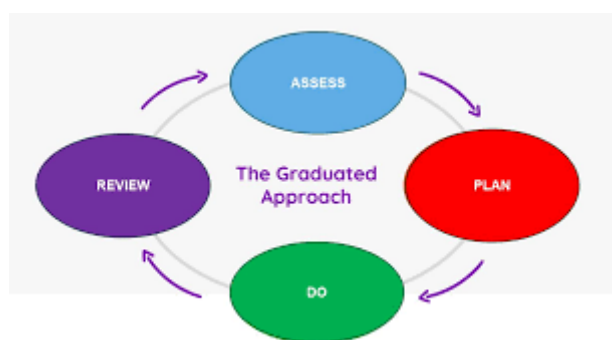

A local authority may issue an EHC plan for a pupil who needs more support than is available through SEN support. This will follow a statutory assessment process whereby the local authority considers the pupil's special educational needs and any relevant health and social care needs; sets out long term outcomes; and specifies provision which will deliver additional support to meet those needs.

<https://explore-education-statistics.service.gov.uk/find-statistics/special-educational-needs-in-england>

The school SEND register is monitored regularly and parents are informed if their child is on the SEND register and invited in to discuss the support for their child with the SENCO and the class teacher.

4. Inclusion and Equal Opportunity

At St Mark's CEP we use the graduated approach to SEND. This means that assess a child's needs, put a plan in place for them, carry out the plan and then review the impact. This is done through monitoring the progress of all pupils three times a year to review their academic progress, with additional meetings in between to discuss children's needs or areas of concern. We also use a range of assessments with all the pupils at various points e.g. Y1 phonics screening (term 6), speech link (EYFS and as appropriate), language link (EYFS, Year 1, Year 4 and as appropriate) and Y4 multiplication screen (term 6) Where progress is less than that which would be expected, even if a special educational need has not been identified, we put in place extra support to enable the pupil to catch up. Examples of extra support are speech and language support, booster groups, Nurture Group, Social Communication Groups, Time to Talk, Lego building groups, Sensory circuits, Language for Learning, Social stories, Comic strip conversations, phonics, etc. Some pupils may continue to make inadequate progress, despite high-quality teaching targeted at their areas of weakness. For these pupils, and in consultation with parents, we will use a range of assessment tools to determine the cause of the learning difficulty. At St Mark's CEP we are experienced in using the following assessment tools: Speech link, Language link, BPVS, PHaB2, YARC reading assessment, Sandwell Maths, Dyslexia portfolio etc. We have access to external advisors who are able to use the following assessment tools – e.g. Educational Psychologist: Verbal comprehension, Perceptual reasoning, Working memory, Processing speed and Full-Scale Intelligence Quotient. The purpose of this more detailed assessment is to understand what additional resources and different approaches are required to enable the pupil to make better progress. These will be shared with parents, put into a SEN support plan and reviewed regularly, and refined / revised if necessary. At this point we will have identified that the pupil has a special educational need because the school is making special educational provision for the pupil which is additional and different to that which is normally available. If the pupil is able to make good progress using this additional and different resource (but would not be able to maintain this good progress without it) we will continue to identify the pupil as having a special educational need. If the pupil is able to maintain good progress without the additional and different resources, he or she will not be identified with special educational needs. When any change in identification of SEN is changed parents will be notified. We will ensure that all teachers and support staff who work with the pupil are aware of the support to be provided and the teaching approaches to be used.

Maintained School

7.2.2 Children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)

Governing bodies have legal duties in relation to pupils with SEND that are set out in the Children and Families Act 2014 and the SEND code of practice.

Governing bodies should have an individual responsible for specific oversight of the school's arrangements for children with SEND.

The SEND code of practice assists the governing body and the link or lead governor in supporting and promoting discussions with regards to outcomes for learners with SEND.

DfE: Maintained schools guidance guide: updated 2 October 2024 Maintained Schools Handbook

The named Governor is responsible for the strategic oversight of the arrangements and provision for pupils with SEN.

The SEND Governor will:

- carryout monitoring visits on behalf of the Governing Body to ensure high quality and effective provision is in place and in line with the SEND Code of Practice statutory and Local Authority guidance and expectations.
- Report to and raise awareness of SEN issues raised during monitoring visits and meetings at Governing Body meetings.

- Work closely with the SENCO and Headteacher to ensure the strategic review and development of the SEND Policy, SEN Information Report and provision in the school.

Our SEN Governor is Shelly Kerr-Black

5.4 Teachers

All teachers are teachers of pupils with special educational needs. Our SENCO provide a vital strategic role and provides significant advice and support to teachers, but the responsibility for the learning and progress of all children lies with the teacher.

'High quality teaching, differentiated for individual pupils, is the starting point in responding to pupils who have or may have SEN. Additional intervention and SEN support cannot compensate for a lack of good quality teaching.

Schools should regularly and carefully review the quality of teaching for all pupils, including those at risk of underachievement. This includes reviewing and, where necessary, improving, teachers' understanding of strategies to identify and support vulnerable pupils, and their knowledge of the SEN most frequently encountered.' (DfE/DoH SEND Code of Practice 2015: 25)

Every teacher is responsible for:

- The progress and development of every pupil in their class
- Instilling high aspirations for every pupil.
- Delivering a broad balanced curriculum embedding high-quality inclusive teaching strategies and resources
- Working closely with teaching assistants or specialist staff to plan, monitor, track and assess the impact of support and interventions, and how they can be transitioned and embedded in the classroom.
- Working with the SENCO to review each pupil's progress and development and decide on any changes to provision.
 - Ensuring they follow this SEN policy.
 - That the Mainstream Core Standards are in place to support children.
 - That termly provision maps are updated.
 - That b-squared assessments are updated each term.
 - Personalised plans are reviewed in terms 2,4 and 6.
 - Support Staff support children with SEND through identified interventions and in class.
 - Classroom resources reflect the needs of children.
 - Link to SEN Information report
 - Children who are on the SEN register have a Pupil Passport and these are updated with pupils and parents and carers.

5.5 Parents and carers

Parents and carers should inform the school if they have any concerns about their child's progress socially, physically, emotionally, or academically or if there are any changes to provision that have been advised by key external professionals working with their child following an appointment.

Parents/ carers are actively involved in all aspects of the decision-making process through meetings or agreed forms of communication and are afforded every opportunity to contribute discussions regarding their child's SEN provision.

As well as parent meetings, parents can arrange to see the class teacher or contact the SENCo for a meeting. The SENCO also provides SENCO surgery days, coffee afternoons with the Flo. Additionally, the SENCO will invite parents in to meet to discuss their child's progress. Pupil passports are developed to ensure pupil voice and parent voice are included

5.6 The pupil

Seeking the voice of the pupil is an important aspect of ensuring the SEN provision is highly effective for every pupil with SEN. Pupils are given every opportunity to express their view and provide information to support review meetings as part of our Graduated Approach in year meetings and for pupils with an EHCP the statutory Annual Review. However, the voice of the pupil can be sought at any time throughout the school year.

Pupils at St Mark's are able to express their views through discussions with their teachers e.g. writing conversations and in daily learning. Additionally, pupils are able to discuss their views through the contributions of Pupil Passports. Children with EHCPs are able to contribute at annual reviews and through Pupil Voice. Children are also asked through pupil voice discussions across the curriculum what helps them to learn.

6. SEN Information Report

Our SEN policy works in conjunction with our SEN Information report which sets out how this policy is implemented in the school.

The SEN Information Report is updated annually or if necessary, when changes to the information may be required during the academic year.

7. Admissions and Accessibility

St Mark's is aware of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and complies with non-discrimination provisions and admissions processes.

The admission arrangements for a pupil without an EHCP do not discriminate against or disadvantage disabled children or those with special educational needs.

8. Our school approach to SEN provision

St Mark's will assess each pupil's current skills and levels of attainment on entry, which will build on previous settings and Key Stages, where appropriate. Teachers will make regular assessments of progress for all pupils and identify those whose progress:

- Is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline.
- Fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress.
- Fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers.
- Widens the attainment gap.

DfE/DOH SEND Code of Practice: 2015, 6.17

This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, social, emotional and mental health needs.

When deciding whether special educational provision is required, St Mark's will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment using the school/academy's graduated approach, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. The school/academy will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether the school/academy can provide it by adapting the universal offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

8.1 The kinds of special educational need for which provision is made

At St Mark's provision is made to support pupils with additional needs irrespective of whether a pupil has an education health and care plan in conjunction with The Continuum of Provision and Need and using the Graduated Approach.

At St Mark's we will ensure our 'best endeavours' to meet the needs of pupils with an Educational Health and Care Plan (EHCP) with the following kinds of special educational need: Cognition and Learning Difficulties, Communication and Interaction, Sensory and/or Physical Needs and Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs. Decisions on the admission of pupils with an EHCP are made by the Local Authority.

8.2 The identification and assessment of pupils with special educational needs

In line with this SEND Code of Practice (DfE/DoH 2015) pupils at St Mark's are identified as either having no SEN, having SEN with support, or having a SEN with an Educational Health and Care Plan.

At St Mark's progress is closely monitored throughout the year to review their academic progress with three data drops in terms 2, 4 and 6. However, pupils with SEN may have more frequent assessments and SEND children may be assessed using b-squared or Portage (small step assessments) to help support and monitor their progress in addition to the National Curriculum objectives.

Teachers carry out regular assessments to track progress and identify pupils who despite using high quality inclusive teaching strategies are:

- Working significantly slower than their peers who have the same starting point.
- Are unable to maintain or improve their progress rate
- Are unable to close the attainment gap in line with their peers or the gap is widening.

This may also include progress and development in areas other than academic attainment such as social, emotional, and physical.

To support pupils, St Mark's use a range of assessments to review and monitor the broader developmental needs and progress of all pupils such as reading assessments; Speech Link (Years R, 1 and 3 each academic year and as appropriate), phonics screening (term 6), Dyslexia Portfolio, WRiT, PHaB2, PM Benchmark, Sandwell Maths. These tests will enable the early identification of difficulties that a pupil may present with and at St Mark's teachers will be able to put in the appropriate support. Information collected from the testing will inform the appropriate intervention and provision to support progress and outcomes.

Pupil progress and pupil conversation meetings help identify support needed for children and which assessments or outside agencies would be best to support a child identified as having SEND. These happen each term, either as a Pupil Progress meeting or a pupil conversation meeting. Alternatively, teachers speak to the SENCO regularly if they have a concern regarding a child's learning and the appropriate support will be identified and put in place.

Teachers at St Mark's are responsible for classroom provision delivering a well sequenced and resourced curriculum and use high quality inclusive teaching strategies which are scaffolded, with adaptations made to meet a pupil's needs.

When teachers identify an area where a pupil is making slow progress or where they have concerns, they will follow the school early identification of need's protocols as set out in section 7. Teachers will inform parents/carers at an early stage to make them aware and discuss the further supporting strategies that the teacher will use to help the pupil.

However, if progress does not improve the teacher will inform the SENCO to have an initial discussion about whether this lack of progress may be due to a special educational need. In this instance, the SENCO will, in consultation with the pupil's parents/carers, discuss further support.

St Mark's also has a Family Liaison Officer (FLO) who can provide further support and can be contacted at:

The purpose of a more detailed assessment will identify what additional resources and/or different approach is required to enable the pupil to make better progress. These will be shared with parents/carers, written into SEN provision plans, which are regularly reviewed, refined, and revised. At this point the SENCO will have identified that the pupil has an additional need because the school/academy is making provision for the pupil which is additional and different to what is normally available. Teachers will be informed throughout the process, and training will be delivered to ensure the provision is of a high quality.

It is important to note as stated in the SEND Code of Practice (DfE/DoH,2015 6.23) that slower than expected progress and lower attainment does not automatically mean a pupil would be recorded as having SEN.

If the pupil is able to make good progress using this additional and different resource but would not be able to maintain this good progress without it, the school/academy will continue to identify the pupils having special educational need. If the pupil is able to make good progress without the additional or different resources, they will not be identified as having special educational needs. When any change of identification of SEN is amended, parents/carers will be notified.

St Mark's will ensure that all teachers and support staff who work with a pupil with SEN or have an additional need are made fully aware of the provision that each individual pupil requires through updated provision maps and personalised plans that are shared with staff. In year 6, SEND handover meetings take place with the support of the SENCO to ensure a smooth transition into the next academic year. TPs meet weekly with the SENCO.

8.3 Consulting with Parents

Parents are invited to parents evening twice a year and receive a written report three times a year. Additionally, children who have a Personalised Education Plan receive a copy of the completed plan three times a year and are invited to meet with the SENCO to discuss. The SENCO also provides opportunities through SENCO surgery and coffee afternoons for parents to discuss their child's needs. Alternatively, the SENCO and or parent can arrange to meet to discuss the progress of a child at anytime during the academic year. EHCP annual reviews are planned for in advance and parents are given a minimum of two weeks notice. Pupil Passports are also given out at the start of the academic year for parents to review, contribute to and arrange meetings with class teacher and SENCO.

9. Assessing, Monitoring, Reviewing and Evaluating Progress towards Outcomes

At St Mark's we use the assess, plan do and review graduated approach to supporting children with SEND. These include term Personalised Education Plan reviews in term 2, 4 and 6 where the class teacher meets with the SENCO to review progress of targets on the plan and parents/carers are invited to review and contribute.

St Mark's best endeavours through:

- The teacher's assessment and experience of the pupil
- The pupil's previous progress and attainment or behaviour
- Other teachers' assessments, where relevant
- The pupil's individual development compared to their peers and national data.
- Collaboration with parents/carers to seek their views and experience and agreed next steps.
- The pupil's own views
- Advice from external support services, if relevant
- Ensure pupils are prepared for their next steps and onward pathways.

At all times teachers and support staff who work closely with the pupil will be made aware of their needs, provision, plan outcomes, key strategies, provision and approaches to support them throughout the school day. Any changes to provision will be communicated in a timely manner through the school's SEN protocols and processes as set out in the SEN Information Report.

This policy and SEN Information Report will be reviewed by Tracey Coton every year. It will also be updated to reflect any changes to the information or statutory policy.

The policy will be approved by the governing body and available to read and refer to on the academy's website.

10. Complaints about SEND Provision

Complaints about SEN provision at St Mark's should be made to the class teacher in the first instance. They will then be referred to the school's complaints policy.

Parents/carers of pupils with disabilities have the right to make disability discrimination claims to the first tier SEND tribunal if they believe that the school has discriminated against their child. They can make a claim about alleged discrimination regarding:

- Exclusions
- Provision of education and associated services
- Making reasonable adjustments, including the provision of auxiliary aids and services

All complaints relating to a named member of staff must be sent to the headteacher/principal.

If a complaint is not resolved after it has been considered by the governing body and you are not satisfied with the school's response, you can escalate the complaint. In some circumstances, this right also applies to the pupil themselves.

To see a full explanation of suitable avenues for complaint, pages 246 and 247 of the SEND Code of Practice SEND Code of Practice
